

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:

Jamie Winter
Winter Public Relations
jamie@winterpublicrelations.com
(720) 425-2580

Rocky Mountain Communities Hires Tony Frank as Vice President of Fund Development
Frank brings more than 20 years of experience to the nonprofit housing organization

Denver, Colo. June 4, 2024 – Denver-based affordable housing nonprofit, Rocky Mountain Communities (RMC), has hired Tony Frank as vice president of fund development. Frank has been in development in Denver for more than 20 years and focuses on strengthening and expanding nonprofits and social enterprise organizations.

“As RMC’s portfolio of properties grows, our fundraising needs also continue to increase,” said Mark Marshall, CEO of Rocky Mountain Communities. “Tony’s experience in development and fundraising, and his prior experience at RMC, make him a great addition to our leadership team. His passion for helping non-profits realize their development goals is just what Rocky Mountain Communities needs right now.”

As vice president of fund development, Frank is responsible for planning, organizing and directing all of RMC’s fundraising efforts, including grants, major gifts program, special events, annual fund, planned giving, and capital campaigns. In addition, Frank will lead efforts to strengthen and expand RMCs marketing and communications initiatives to help address key issues to sustain and expand the supply of affordable housing throughout the region.

Prior to joining Rocky Mountain Communities, Frank worked in development for Gateway Domestic Violence Services from 2023-2024. He was the director of business development for PCs for People from 2018-2023, and he was the fund development manager/director of digital inclusion for Denver Housing Authority from 2015-2018. From 1998-2004 Frank worked at RMC as the community technology center manager.

Frank has a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science/Urban Studies Concentration from Vassar College and a Master of Public Administration with a Local Government Concentration from University of Colorado, Denver.

About Rocky Mountain Communities

Rocky Mountain Communities (RMC) builds brighter futures and inspires hope by providing affordable housing and resident-focused services to individuals and families across the state of Colorado. Currently, RMC owns 10 communities, providing 1,239 affordable housing units for under-served populations statewide, while also managing an additional 300 units through its Pillar Property Services entity. RMC supports its residents with a multitude of on-site programming created through partnerships with residents. Cooking classes, computer classes, after school programming for kids and a variety of mobile services are some of the activities that RMC provides to its residents free of charge. Since its founding in 1992, as a 501(c)(3) organization, RMC has responded to the need for housing and program services for more than 16,000 families. For more information, visit www.rockymountaincommunities.org, follow us on Facebook @RockyMountainCommunities and on LinkedIn @rocky-mountain-communities.

###